Military Review.

The 18th Ohio and 19th Ill, Volunrs, being a part of Col." STANLEY'S igade, were reviewed yesterday afteron, by General NEGLEY. They are lendid looking troops, and we exceeddy regret that we were prevented by pressure of business from witnessthe roview, which we are sure must ve been a superb affair. Success to gallant troops always, and may vicy ever perch upon their banners!

EFF. Davis, our armies are advancing o your kingdom. As your Minute n, and Vigilance Committees, and xas Regulators fly before us, the reemed people may repeat the song of a PERSON poet in 1800 :

The stormy night before us il'es, The reign of terror now is o'er; Their gogs, inquisitors, and spies, and horder of harpies are so more Bejoice. Americans, rejoice, To tyrants never bend the knee, But join to heart and souland voice, To Order, Law and Liberty!

A Skirmish near Lavergne.

Col. Krak, of the 40th Illinois, commanding FifthBrigadeof Gen Sills'Division, made a reconnoissance, on Thursday, toward Lavergne, with two companies of the Third Indiana Cavalry, and that portion of his brigade not on picket duty. He came upon the rebel outposts of cavalry three quarters of a mile beyond Scrougesville. NEGRO STEALING .-- It strikes us that Captain James McQuoid, of the steamer Iberville, is in a tight place. He went up the river the other day, and upon his return yesterday he was "one negro short." Inquiry was instituted, and it turned out that he sold the man. General Butler has locked McQuoid up in the Parish Prison, "there to remain until he returns the negro." We like the conditions, although old Barker will call us by the fearful name of "Abolitionist" for saying so. In the language of the Roman Consul, Capt. McQuoid might as well be a cat in hell without claws as to try to
